Knoxville's key leaders will come together to celebrate and promote the city and its most precious properties. WBIR's Robin Wilhout will perform the duties of Mistress of Ceremonies, and Marilyn Kallet, the City of Knoxville's current Poet Laureate, will also present an original piece specifically created to honor the event. The luncheon will be held at the East Tennessee History Center, 601 S. Gay Street, downtown Knoxville. Single tickets are $50; a table of ten is $500.

Purchase tickets at knoxalliance.store, or call 865-523-7543. Please RSVP by September 28.
